Stand Out from the crowd Branded real estate bags

Buyers' Bag

Most real estate agents give a bottle of wine to a new home owner. The wine will eventually be discarded, so why not stand out from the crowd by giving something that will last?

Renters' Bag

Put your company name on your renter's key ring . It's the extra things that make you stand out to ensure you are the first real estate agent he thinks of when he's ready to buy a home.
